Arena at Innovation Mile Policies:

<https://www.arenainnovationmile.com/general-5-1>

- | | | |
|---|---|--|
| 1 | Do I need a ticket to attend? | Yes, all attendees (players, coaches, parents, vendors, etc) must register and receive a free general admission ticket to attend the event. https://www.universe.com/events/ien-spring-finals-tickets-NSZ9K3 |
| 2 | What about parking? | There will be free bus parking in the surface lot next to The Arena. Passenger vehicles will park in the attached parking garage for $7. (Re-entry will be permitted) |
| 3 | What about food? | No outside food/drink will be allowed. There will be food/drink for sale at the concession stands. The Arena is a cashless facility, but students can exchange cash for food vouchers at guest services. There are also numerous restaurants in short driving distance. (Re-entry into the venue will be permitted.) |
| 4 | What should spectators expect? | All competitions will take place on the main floor. Each competition station will be equipped with audio and video for spectators to watch the competitions live or via online live stream. The video scoreboard will also be used above the central stage for awards presentations. |
| 5 | What will be different from past IEN Finals? | In addition to more competitions, more games, and more champions, the event will be contained to a single larger space that allows for a more energetic and dynamic event! |
